Profile

Rushil is a core member of the Firm’s Dispute Resolution team at its Mumbai office.

Rushil regularly advises on various civil/commercial disputes, involving litigation before Courts and arbitral tribunals, white collar crime and insolvency related proceedings. Rushil regularly advises, assists and represents clients before various judicial and quasi-judicial fora across the Indian jurisdiction. He is actively involved in drafting of pleadings and research on complex legal issues. As part of the Firm’s Disputes Resolution team, he has represented a wide range of clients across industries including real estate, insurance, projects & infrastructure, technology and finance.

He regularly represents creditors under the Insolvency regime before the National Company Law Tribunal as well as its Appellate Bench. Rushil has also advised multinational clients on the corporate insolvency process and on the development and implementation of a resolution plan under the Insolvency Code. Rushil is also actively involved in advising and representing creditors in the post insolvency commencement process, including representing them before the COC.

His practice includes advising clients from an advisory and strategic standpoint so as to agitate their case in a precise manner before the various fora.
